

Convergence...

Within the institutional investor space resulting in disruption and yielding better outcomes

These convergences are driven by the pursuit of better outcomes for the end investors. Those outcomes are achieved by disrupting the status quo with specialist technology resulting in the delivery of more of the return to end investors, and the elimination of friction from the traditional investment process.

FRONT, BACK & MIDDLE OFFICE

Disruption of the traditional investment process...
Resulting in greater efficiency, cost savings, operational risk mitigation and the ability to support innovation.

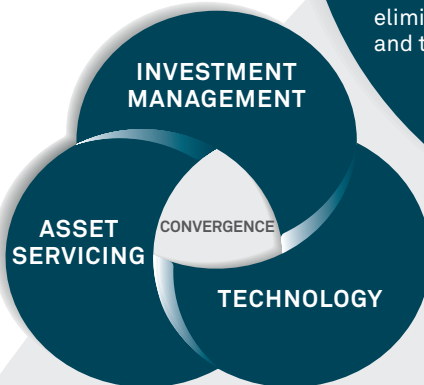

INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT, ASSET SERVICING & TECHNOLOGY

Disruption of traditional industry infrastructure...
Increasing agility and efficiency to facilitate innovation and therefore better outcomes by eliminating operational friction and technology constraints.

CONVERGENCE

INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT, INVESTMENT CONSULTING & OCIO

Disruption of the traditional investment management model...
Delivering more of the investment value to investors and focusing commercial value (competitive differentiation) on asset allocation expertise, both design and execution.
